

Snake Envenomation Class

April 24th, 2010

Class Description

This is a “live” venomous snake demonstration.

- Anatomy
- Snake Identification
- Snake Behavior
- Common Mistakes
- SAR Team Considerations
- Treatment and First Aid
- Bite Symptoms
- Emergency Room Treatment
- Toxicology/Venom

Cherokee County Search and Rescue Team
along with the Georgia Search and Rescue
Advisory Council Presents:

Snake Envenomation Class SAR Saturday

Class is designed for Search and Rescue, E.M.T.'s, Paramedics, and K9 Handlers to obtain a working knowledge and understanding of; how to identify the native venomous snakes of Georgia, basic snake behavior and characteristics, how to remove snake bite patients to safety, recognizing symptoms of a snake envenomation, various venom components and their effects on the human body, treatment and first aid for snake bites and the five most common mistakes made.

Class is free and will be held at:

Cherokee County Public Safety Building (Classroom 1)

150 Chattin Drive, Canton, GA. 30115

CLASS TIMES ARE 0800 HOURS TILL 1600 HOURS

REGISTER WITH:

SHANE SMITH
CHEROKEE COUNTY SEARCH AND RESCUE
TRAINING OFFICER
mssmith@cherokeega.com